his lawyers.

Announcement was made in the District-Attorney's office that Booker may get his ease before the Court of Appeals for argument not later than acit Cotober under a new ruling deing away with the "narrative" in appeals. This "narrative" required each side to get up its own version of the evidence and submit it to the other. Often these had to be passed back and forth several times before both sides approved.

back and forth several times before both sides approved.

It is reported that Becker's lawyers will rush their case as much as possible because of the possibility of Mr. Whitman's becoming Governor Jan. 1.

No authoritative statement has been made by the District-Attornor as to the possible prosecution of Jack Sullivan on a charge of murder in connection with the Rosenthal case.

Sullivan was indicted, but released on his own recognizance. It is said he may be rearrested and forced to stand trial and that Mr. Whitman is preparing to prosecute some of the witnesses in the trial just closed on charges of perfury.

Although Becker will be sentenced to death Friday, he may not have to return to the death house for some months. After the date of execution is fixed by Justice Seabury he may be permitted to remain in the Tombe for a week or longer. There is at present only one vacant cell in the death house is sling Sing and it may be siled before next Monday, which would necessitate Becker's being accommodated in posse other part of the prison.
